CULTURE OF GROWING

ENGAGING AFRICAN NOVA SCOTIAN YOUTH IN AGRICULTURE & COMMUNITY FOOD SECURITY

(Grades 7–12, March–February)

- A youth-led community garden and greenhouse
- Equip our youth with food growing skills
- Building practical food sovereignty skills
- Agricultural and entrepreneurship training
- Marketing and branding training
- Fun field trips and camp opportunities
- Exposure to careers in agriculture
- Practical and soft skill development — critical thinking, collaboration, communication and creativity

CULTURE OF GROWING

The Culture of Growing Project is an initiative of Imhotep's Legacy Academy (ILA), in partnership with the Department of Canadian Heritage, African Nova Scotian Affairs, African Canadian Services Branch (NS Dept of Education), Nova Scotia Department of Agriculture and Perennia Food and Agriculture Corporation.

The program engages youth in agriculture and involves them in the entire farming cycle:

- Seedling selection
- Land preparation
- Crop planting
- Adding value to produce
- Marketing and branding
