

January 30 – February 2, 2022

A 4-day virtual conference with outstanding research, career opportunities, youth engagement activities (including a science fair), and more

THIS EVENT WILL...

- highlight diverse research by Black Canadians across all disciplines, featuring field-leading scholars and rising stars
- connect decision-makers/leaders and community to share ideas and discuss best practices for Black inclusion across sectors

THEMES

DAYS 1–3: Research & Career Opportunities

Day 1 includes:

- Youth engagement session
- Young, Gifted & Black Science Fair (YGBSF)

DAY 4: Justice & Enabling Change

SPEAKERS FROM NOVA SCOTIA

JANUARY 30

- Eddia Solas
- Kevin Hewitt
- Tamara Franklin

FEBRUARY 1

- Sinmisade Ayantoye
- Perrine Tami

MORE SPEAKERS FROM ACROSS CANADA

Visit dal.ca/imhotep for more info

HOW TO REGISTER

- Free for students/trainees
- Join CBSN network to waive the fee for Black-identifying attendees
- Email imhotep@dal.ca for a waiver if you are unable to join the CBSN network
- Register online: blackscientists.ca

HOSTED BY

SUPPORTED BY

PLANS
Promoting Leadership in health for African Nova Scotians

